Giving Directions

We use imperative sentences to give directions.

Match the directions to the pictures.

- 1 turn left
- 2 turn right
- 3 go straight on
- 4 take the first street on the left
- 5 take the second road on the right
- 6 cross the road at the traffic lights

Notice

We use there's one when we don't want to repeat a word:

- Is there a café near here?
- Yes, there's one over there.
- one = a café

Any are end is isn't next opposite some

Hi,
Thanks for your email. Now I can tell you about where I live! My flat is in Budapest, (1) next to a big park – I often go jogging there in the mornings. It’s a quiet area but there are (2) really good cafés and restaurants. My favourite café is (3) opposite my flat, on the other side of the road. It’s the best place to relax – there (4) comfortable sofas and bookshelves, with books and magazines to read. The coffee’s great, too! Some people don’t like this area because there aren’t (5) big shops and there (6) a supermarket, but for me, that’s OK. Every Saturday there (7) a market at the (8) of my street, so I buy everything I need there. Come and visit soon so I can show you the city!

Love,

Okutman Derya KOCAOĞLU
